

Privacy Statement

Gerwil Sliedredge is convinced that the privacy of its candidates, flex workers, employees, and of other relations and website visitors, is essential. Personal data is therefore handled and secured with the greatest possible care, in compliance with the requirements laid down by law.

When you provide personal data to Gerwil Sliedredge, your data is included in the Gerwil Sliedredge databank. This also applies to data that we receive from you or a representative of a (potential) business relation (such as a customer, supplier, seller or other company or agency).

We attribute great importance to your privacy. Personal data provided by you to us is carefully handled and secured in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (AVG).

Personal data

Personal data is data that can (directly and indirectly) identify you as a living individual. There is general personal data such as name, address, BSN / National insurance number / Social security number and online identifiers/location data. There is also sensitive personal data which includes information on physical and mental health, sexual orientation, race or ethnic origin, religious beliefs, trade union membership and criminal records.

Gerwil Sliedredge will generally only collect sensitive information about you with your written consent and if authorized by law.

If you decide to voluntarily provide us with information, we will use this information in accordance with our privacy policy.

Gerwil Sliedredge is convinced that the privacy of its candidates, flex workers, employees, and or other relations and website visitors, is essential. Personal data is therefore handled and secured with the greatest possible care, in compliance with the requirements laid down by law.

When you provide personal data to Gerwil Sliedredge, your data will be included in the Gerwil Sliedredge databank. This also applies to data that we receive from you or a representative of a (potential) business relation (such as a customer, supplier, seller or other company or agency).

We attach great importance to your privacy. This privacy policy outlines how Gerwil Sliedredge manages personal Information, including the type of information, how it is collected and held, the purposes for which it is collected, held, used and disclosed and as well as how individuals can access their information and make inquiries, notifications or complaints about breaches of the legislation or privacy principles. Personal data that you have provided to us will be handled and secured carefully, in accordance with the GDPR and this policy.

Data processing of website visitors

Visitors can enter our website without providing us with any personal data. However, like many websites, we do collect certain non-identifiable and automatic information about users of our website. We process data about date, time and access of your visits to our website; information about which channel brought you to our website, the pages and sections that you've visited and information that you've uploaded, or downloaded from the website.

The collected data is used to optimize our website's content to the wishes and needs of our website visitors. We may disclose unidentifiable information to third parties, and this data is stored for future use.

Processing personal data

We collect and process your data in order to improve our services. We may use your data for the following purposes:

- To be able to comply with applicable law and legislation;
- To enter into and maintain with you an employee/employer relationship or a staff/job mediation relationship, and to keep records on personal, financial, time tracking, absence and/or wage administration, or to enter into and maintain a relationship directed at acquiring/carrying out assignments, and to keep an financial administration for this;
- To assess your suitability for a specific position or assignment, to record your availability and to contact you with, or introduce you to, one of multiple (potential) customers and/or relations;

Gerwil Sliedredge processes, amongst other things, the following data: name, address, residence, e-mail address, telephone number, nationality, date and place of birth, gender, marital status, curriculum vitae (CV), work experience, bank account number, policy or customer number health insurer, data on education, (copy) certificates, references, (copy) passport photo, (copy) ID card, social security number (BSN), (copy) work permit, (copy) residence permit and (copy) Declaration of Independent Contractor Status (DBA).

Gerwil Sliedredge may disclose your personal data to its customers and relations, suppliers (such as educational institutions), audit authorities, government agencies, subcontractors, and to companies and/or individuals involved by Gerwil Sliedredge for carrying out certain tasks (including editors). Gerwil Sliedredge may also provide your data to third parties, when we are authorised or obliged to do so on the basis of applicable law and legislation, a court order or ruling, or have been granted your permission to do so.

We only process particular personal data if we have your explicit permission for this, or is there is any (other) legal basis for this. The particular data that we process usually involves data that can be deducted from your identification document, of which the law requires us to make a copy when you start working for us. We may also process particular personal data regarding your social security situation or background. We do this in order to use (premium) discounts and/or subsidies, to comply with our reintegration obligations and to execute the government target of helping people, whom are further distanced from the labour market back, to work, which can be found in various (future) laws and legislations.

The particular personal data that you provide to us can only be accessed by people that require this data for carrying out their activities, and/or to comply with applicable law and legislation. Examples of this include staff, financial, absence and/or wage administration officers, and people involved with quality assurance, financial reporting and executing premium discounts and subsidy schemes. We may also disclose particular personal data, that we've received from you, to our customers, if there is a legal basis for this. We may furthermore disclose this data to government agencies supervising the execution of government targets and/or allocating (premium) discounts and/or subsidies.

Gerwil Sliedredge will not keep your personal records any longer than is required for the objectives for which this data has been collected, and complies with the applicable law and legislation:

- If you have not (yet) worked for Gerwil Sliedredge, we will keep your data up to 2 years after the last contact;
- If you have worked for Gerwil Sliedredge, your data will be available for up to two years after terminating the employment. Whenever necessary and legitimate, data may be stored for longer, for instance in case of a claim.

Use of personal data

Personal data received by Gerwil Sliedredge from employees or representatives from business relations (such as customers, suppliers, sellers, and other companies or agencies) will be used by us for the following purposes:

- To enable you to make use of our services and/or to enable us to make use of your services;
- To enter into, and maintain, a trading relationship with you;
- To agree on assignments, and/or to be able to (have) these executed;
- To inform you about our services and other activities (for example via e-mail, SMS, newsletters and business magazines) and to be able to provide you with offers;
- To comply with applicable law and legislation;
- To be able to grant you access to, and use of, our closed web environments, portals and intranet environments;
- To inform you about the products and/or services of partners that have been carefully selected by us, by adding information on these products and/or services to our website, or by including this, amongst others, in our newsletters and business magazines.

Data security

Gerwil Sliedredge takes reasonable steps to hold personal information using appropriate physical and/or electronic security technology, settings and applications and by training staff who deal with personal information on our policies and procedures. These measures are designed to protect personal information from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure; and from misuse, interference and loss. Notwithstanding this, you should be mindful that the internet is generally not a secure environment.

Rights

- Right of access: You can request information on your data that is processed by us via your contact person at any time.
- Rights of rectification of inaccurate or incomplete data: You can ask at any time what information Gerwil Sliedredge holds on you and what we do with this information.
- Right to informed consent: If you are currently assigned or contracted or have been in the last 2 years, there is no explicit consent needed, as this is already covered within the contract we have with you. If you have worked for us longer than 2 years ago, we will send an email to obtain an explicit consent from you, to stay in our database for recruitment purposes. All professionals will be informed about our renewed privacy statement and the new options in the portal to ensure privacy.
- Right to be forgotten / Right to erase.
- Right to withdraw consent: You can request to deactivate your account with Gerwil Sliedredge at any time, by sending an email to rene@gerwil-sliedredge.com
This means, we will not contact you for any reason. There is a distinction between ‘to be forgotten permanently’ and ‘to be forgotten temporarily’.
If you choose to be forgotten permanently, we will make sure not to contact you. We will only use your personal data if we have a legal reason for doing so (like f.e. for tax purposes). If you choose to be forgotten temporarily, we will contact you 2 years after you have “deactivated” your account. You then have the opportunity to re-activate your account.
- Data portability right: You can request for an overview of your personal data that is kept by Gerwil Sliedredge in a transferable / machine-readable format, by sending an email to rene@gerwil-sliedredge.com

Questions, remarks and complaints

If you have questions, remarks or complaints with regard to this privacy statement, or the way in which Gerwil Sliedredge registers, uses and processes your data, you can express these via e-mail to: rene@gerwil-sliedredge.com

If you detect or suspect a data breach, this must be reported immediately to the Data Protection Officer of Gerwil Sliedredge. This can be done by sending an email to rene@gerwil-sliedredge.com

We aim to respond to your question, remark or complaint within one month after receipt.

Amending privacy statement

Gerwil Sliedredge has the right to amend this privacy statement. The most actual privacy statement can always be found on the Gerwil Sliedredge website.
